

SALE OF ALCOHOL

Leighton-Linslade Town Council has acquired a Premises License for Leighton Buzzard Town Centre, which permits the council to host events and markets with live and recorded music, and the sale of alcohol. Traders and their representatives who sell alcohol on Leighton Buzzard Market must adhere to the conditions as set out below in order to be granted permission to trade on the market.

Any trader wishing to sell alcohol must be a Personal License Holder (PLH) and uphold the licensing objectives:

- Prevention of crime and disorder Public safety
- Prevention of public nuisance Protection of children from harm

In upholding the above, you agree to:

1. In the absence of the Trader/Personal License Holder attending their stall, written consent from the PLH shall be provided to the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS) or person acting on their behalf, giving permission for their named representative/s to sell products on the PLH's behalf (Please see Associated Trader information request below)
2. The Trader/Personal License Holder shall maintain a refusals log, which will record details of when the sale of alcohol is refused as a result of the purchaser being unable to produce acceptable identification to prove they are over the age of 18 years. The refusals log at stalls selling alcohol will be produced for inspection by the Police and Authorised Officers of the Licensing Authority upon request.
3. The Trader/Personal License Holder shall ensure that 'Challenge 25' posters are prominently displayed on their stall when selling alcoholic products.

If applicable: Associate Trader Information

This agreement grants permission for the person/s detailed below/overleaf to represent the Personal License Holder (PLH) to work either on behalf of, or in partnership with, the PLH on Leighton Buzzard Market/ Events.
